
Empowering Student Leaders with the COABE Ambassador Training!

Ambassador Training has four components:

- Awareness: Learn the statistics and research about the value of adult basic education
- Stories: Affect change through powerful adult learner stories
- Public speaking: Craft strong messaging and review the basics of public speaking
- Meeting with Officials: Plan, practice, and facilitate meetings with people who have influence

Ambassadors are representational leaders who develop their voice so they can effectively represent other students and take action for social change on issues they care about.

Becoming a COABE Ambassador allows you to:

- Work with a team to elevate the field of adult education
- Increase the visibility of adult education through advocacy and storytelling
- Develop your role and identity as a leader
- Develop your skills for college and career success
- Network with other Ambassadors across the country
- Share your story nationwide!

Choose the training format that works best for your program and learners!

COABE offers online modules, virtually facilitated trainings, and in-person options.

- Asynchronous online modules
- Live training, facilitated virtually by COABE's Students as Leaders Coordinator
- Live training, facilitated in person
