

City of Florence

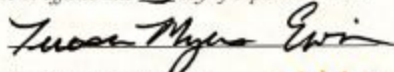

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, during the 2022-2023 academic year, high school students in South Carolina dropped out of school at a rate of 2.4 percent; and the 4-year graduation rate for South Carolina remained at 83.8 percent; and
- WHEREAS, adult education programs contribute to solving these challenges by helping Americans move along the continuum in their educational journey to achieve basic skills and get prepared for career and college; and
- WHEREAS, adult education programs offered in high schools, adult learning centers, technical colleges, literacy organizations and government agencies offer low cost, high value programs that help upgrade the skill set of our citizens; and
- WHEREAS, adult education and family literacy programs assist adults who are parents or family members in obtaining the education and skills that are necessary to become full partners in the educational development of their children and that lead to sustainable improvements in economic opportunities for their family; and
- WHEREAS, the 52 local adult education providers in South Carolina provide instruction and testing services for residents seeking to attain a high school diploma or high school equivalency credential and support adults in strengthening core literacy, numeracy, and digital skills, learning English as a second-language and civics education, and preparing for college or to immediately enter a career pathway; and
- WHEREAS, South Carolina celebrates Adult Education and Family Literacy Week as a proud participant in the COABE Educate and Elevate Campaign which helps our citizens to learn about all of their adult education options to attain their personal and professional goals; and
- WHEREAS, in the Palmetto State an estimated 796,387 citizens ages 16-74 are below the literacy level, and an estimated 450,966 South Carolinians over the age of 18 do not have a high school diploma or equivalent; and
- WHEREAS, during the 2023-2024 academic year, South Carolina adult education programs served 23,613 adult learners; with 2,325 earning a high school equivalency diploma (GED) and 881 earning a high school diploma.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Teresa Myers Ervin, Mayor of Florence, South Carolina, do hereby proclaim September 16-20, 2024 as in the City of Florence and encourage all citizens, educators, policymakers, and stakeholders to join me in recognizing the importance of adult education and advocating for policies that ensure equitable access to educational opportunities for all adults.

Adult Education and Family Literacy Week

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have herewith set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Florence to be affixed this 5 day of September 2024.

Teresa Myers Ervin
MAYOR
